A Trend That You May Face...

Burglars will knock on your _____

If no answer, they normally proceed to _____

Primary access: Smashed Rear Sliding Glass Doors

What Do You Do?

Do Not Open the Door!!!

Speak through the closed door.

Let them know you _____ home but you are _____ going to open the door.

The bottom line...

- ...if someone suspiciously knocks on your door, contact the police with their description immediately!
- DO NOT CALL YOUR PARENTS FIRST! CALL THE POLICE!

You Just Observed Something Suspicious...

Call the non-emergency line: _____

The address or location?

The vehicle description (example: Newer Green Dodge Charger with dark tint)

The suspect description (example: 2 white males and 1 black male, approximately 20 years old wearing dark hooded sweatshirts and dark pants)

What if it's Happening Now:

Call _____ Immediately!

- Stay on the phone with 911
- Stay out of sight
- Give the best description you can –
 - Who, What, Where, When

DO NOT TAKE ACTION YOURSELF!

Two Types of Robbery:

Armed Robbery:

- When someone takes property from your possession, using a _____ weapon.

Sudden Snatching:

- This crime occurs when someone takes property from your possession by force, but _____ a weapon.

Robbery:

Criminals will prey on what they perceive to be an easy target:

- Be aware of your surrounding – suspicious _____ and _ _____
- Try to shop with a friend or family member
- Do not appear _____ – Do not bury your face in your portable phone while walking through parking lots!
- Be _____ to defend yourself against assailant
- DO NOT fight for personal property! Material possessions can be replaced...

Be Prepared...

- Be responsible for your own safety.
- (Again, not walking around in public with their face buried in their portable phone texting, surfing the web).
- If you have a younger brother or sister, set the example for them by using good safety.
- Explain to them why you are aware of your surroundings and reinforce what you want them to do in an emergency.

One Last Time!

You Just Observed Something Suspicious...

- Call the non-emergency line: _____
- The address or location?
- The vehicle description
(example: Newer Green Dodge Charger with dark tint)
- The suspect description
(example: 2 white males and 1 black male,
approximately 20 years old wearing dark hooded sweatshirts and dark pants)
